ACCOUNT OWNERSHIP SELECTION

PARTY INITIALS	Choose ONE of the following forms of account ownership by placing your initials next to the chosen form of ownership. The type of account you select may determine how property passes on your death. Your will may not control the disposition of funds held in some of the following forms of account ownership. You may choose to designate one or more convenience signers on an account, even if the account is not a convenience account. A designated convenience signer may make transactions on your behalf during your lifetime, but does not own the account during your lifetime. The designated convenience signer owns the account on your death only if the convenience signer is also designated as a P.O.D payee or trust account beneficiary. The selection you make below will apply to all the accounts listed in the "ACCOUNT TYPE" section.
	SINGLE PARTY ACCOUNT WITHOUT PAYABLE ON DEATH (POD) DESIGNATION. The party to the account owns the account. On the death of the party, ownership of the account passes as a part of the party's estate under the party's will or by intestacy. The party to the account is listed as the Member/Owner.
	SINGLE PARTY ACCOUNT WITH PAYABLE ON DEATH (POD) DESIGNATION. The party to the account owns the account. On the death of the party, ownership of the account passes to the POD beneficiaries of the account. The account is not a part of the party's estate. POD beneficiaries are listed in the "POD BENEFICIARIES" section. The party to the account is listed as the Member/Owner.
	JOINT MULTIPLE PARTY ACCOUNT WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP. (All parties must initial.) The parties to the account own the account in proportion to the parties' net contributions to the account. The financial institution may pay any sum in the account to a party at any time. On the death of a party, the party's ownership of the account passes to the surviving parties. Parties to the account are listed as Member/Owner and Joint Owner.

Parties to the account are listed as Member/Owner and Joint Owner.
	CONVENIENCE ACCOUNT. (All parties must initial.) The parties to the account own the account. One or more convenience signers to the account may make account transactions for a party. A convenience signer does not own the account. On the death of the last surviving party, ownership of the account passes as a part of the last surviving party's estate under the last surviving party's will or by intestacy. The financial institution may pay funds in the account to a convenience signer before the financial institution receives notice of the death of the last surviving party. The payment to a convenience signer does not affect the parties' ownership of the account. The party(ies) to the account are listed as Member/Owner and Joint Owner.
